COLUMBIA CASUALTY COMPANY'S ANSWER TO PLAINTIFF'S RULE 14(A) CLAIMS

Third-party defendant Columbia Casualty Company (erroneously named as Columbia Casualty Insurance Company), for its separate answer to plaintiff's Rule 14(a) claims, denies generally the allegations set forth therein, and otherwise pleads as follows:

1. Columbia Casualty admits, on information and belief, the allegations set forth in paragraph 1 of plaintiff's Rule 14(a) claims.

2. Columbia Casualty admits, on information and belief, the allegations set forth in paragraph 2 of plaintiff's Rule 14(a) claims.

3. Columbia Casualty alleges in response to the allegations set forth in paragraph 3 of plaintiff's Rule 14(a) claims that it issued insurance policy number RDX 186 37 37 to Northern States Power Company, 44 Nicollet Mall, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55401, and that Harbor Insurance Company issued certain insurance policies to MWS Consultants, Inc., et al., and Risk Management Trust, et al., but otherwise Columbia Casualty alleges that it is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations of said paragraph, and therefore puts plaintiff to its strict proof thereof.

4. Columbia Casualty admits in response to the allegations set forth in paragraph 4 of plaintiff's Rule 14(a) claims that it has done business in Wisconsin.

5. Columbia Casualty acknowledges that plaintiff seeks damages and a defense together with declaratory relief in this action as set forth in paragraph 5 of plaintiff's Rule 14(a) claims, but otherwise Columbia Casualty specifically denies a responsibility under its insurance policy to pay damages or provide a defense, whether as alleged in said paragraph or otherwise.

6. Columbia Casualty specifically denies that the claims involved in this action arose in Eau Claire County, Wisconsin, inasmuch as its policy was issued in Minneapolis, Hennepin County, Minnesota.

7. Columbia Casualty admits that plaintiff is a Wisconsin corporation with a principal place of business located in Eau Claire, Wisconsin, that it is authorized to do business in Wisconsin and is a regulated entity, as set forth in paragraph 7 of plaintiff's Rule 14(a) claims, but otherwise Columbia Casualty alleges that it is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations of said paragraph and therefore puts plaintiff to its strict proof thereof.

8. Columbia Casualty alleges that it is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations set forth in paragraph 8 of plaintiff's Rule 14(a) claims, and therefore puts plaintiff to its strict proof thereof.

9. Columbia Casualty alleges that it is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations set forth in paragraph 9 of plaintiff's Rule 14(a) claims, and therefore puts plaintiff to its strict proof thereof.

10. Columbia Casualty admits the allegations set forth in paragraph 10 of plaintiff's Rule 14(a) claims except that Columbia Casualty's policy number RDX 186 37 37 was issued to Northern States Power Company, 44 Nicollet Mall, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55401.

11. Columbia Casualty admits the allegations set forth in paragraph 11 of plaintiff's Rule 14(a) claims, except that the Harbor policies were issued to MWS Consultants, Inc., et al., and to Risk Management Trust, et al.

12. Columbia Casualty admits the allegations set forth in paragraph 12 of plaintiff's Rule 14(a) claims.

13. Columbia Casualty alleges that it is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations set forth in paragraph 13 of plaintiff's Rule 14(a) claims, and therefore puts plaintiff to its strict proof thereof.

14. Columbia Casualty specifically denies that venue is appropriate in this Court as set forth in paragraph 14 of plaintiff's Rule 14(a) claims, inasmuch as the negotiation for, and issuance of, the subject insurance policy had no connection with western Wisconsin whatsoever.

15. Columbia Casualty admits that plaintiff seeks insurance coverage in this action for claims relating to the Owen Park MGP site as set forth in paragraph 15 of plaintiff's Rule 14(a) claims, but otherwise Columbia Casualty specifically denies that its insurance policy provides coverage for the said claims, whether as alleged in the said paragraph or otherwise.

16. Columbia Casualty admits the allegations set forth in paragraph 16 of plaintiff's Rule 14(a) claims.

17. Columbia Casualty alleges that it is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations set forth in paragraph 17 of plaintiff's Rule 14(a) claims, and therefore puts plaintiff to its strict proof thereof.

18. Columbia Casualty alleges that it is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations set forth in paragraph 18 of plaintiff's Rule 14(a) claims, and therefore puts plaintiff to its strict proof thereof.

19. Columbia Casualty admits the allegations set forth in paragraph 19 of plaintiff's Rule 14(a) claims.

20. Columbia Casualty alleges that it is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations set forth in paragraph 20 of plaintiff's Rule 14(a) claims, and therefore puts plaintiff to its strict proof thereof.

21. Columbia Casualty alleges that it is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations set forth in paragraph 21 of plaintiff's Rule 14(a) claims that damage has occurred at the site, and that the said damage has occurred continuously from operations at the site, and therefore puts plaintiff to its strict proof thereof, but otherwise Columbia Casualty specifically denies that property damage and/or an occurrence has occurred within the meaning of its policy, whether as alleged in the said paragraph or otherwise.

22. Columbia Casualty specifically denies that the Columbia Casualty policy and the Harbor policies obligate Columbia Casualty or Continental to indemnify and defend plaintiff, and that property damage at the site has occurred within the coverage of the policies, whether as set forth in paragraph 22 of plaintiff's Rule 14(a) claims or otherwise.

23. Columbia Casualty specifically denies that its policy conditions, or Harbor's policy conditions have been satisfied, waived, or are the subject of an estoppel in connection with the site, whether as set forth in paragraph 23 of plaintiff's Rule 14(a) claims or otherwise.

24. Columbia Casualty specifically denies exhaustion of underlying limits and attachment of the Columbia Casualty policy, or Harbor's policies, whether as set forth in paragraph 24 of plaintiff's Rule 14(a) claims or otherwise.

25. Columbia Casualty alleges that no answer is due in response to paragraph 25 of plaintiff's Rule 14(a) claims.

26. Columbia Casualty alleges in response to the allegations set forth in paragraph 26 of plaintiff's Rule 14(a) claims that it issued a policy that speaks for itself and is the best evidence of its terms, but otherwise Columbia Casualty specifically denies that the Columbia Casualty policy or the Harbor policies provide coverage for the subject site, whether as set forth in the said paragraph or otherwise.

27. Columbia Casualty specifically denies conduct manifesting an intent by Columbia Casualty to breach its policy, and further specifically denies that Continental has engaged in conduct manifesting an intent to breach the Harbor policies, as set forth in paragraph 27 of plaintiff's Rule 14(a) claims, and Columbia Casualty alleges that neither its policy, nor the Harbor policies, provide coverage for plaintiff's alleged liabilities associated with the subject site.

28. Columbia Casualty acknowledges that plaintiff contends a controversy exists with respect to its policy and the Harbor policies as set forth in paragraph 28 of plaintiff's Rule 14(a) claims, but otherwise Columbia Casualty alleges that its coverage is not controversial, and that not all parties with an interest in the outcome of this action have been named as parties thus thwarting the goal of declaratory judgment actions to terminate controversies entirely.

29. Columbia Casualty alleges that no answer is due in response to the allegations set forth in paragraph 29 of plaintiff's Rule 14(a) claims.

30. Columbia Casualty specifically denies that it has anticipatorily breached a contract with plaintiff, specifically denies that Continental has anticipatorily breached a contract with plaintiff, in regard to liabilities arising from the subject site, and Columbia Casualty further specifically denies that it has caused or will cause damages entitling plaintiff to compensation, whether as set forth in paragraph 30 of plaintiff's Rule 14(a) claims or otherwise.

31. Columbia Casualty specifically denies that plaintiff is entitled to recover attorney's fees in this action, whether as set forth in the "wherefore" clause of plaintiff's Rule 14(a) claims or otherwise.

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

32. Columbia Casualty affirmatively alleges that plaintiff's Rule 14(a) claims fail to state a claim, in whole or in part, upon which relief may be granted.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

33. Columbia Casualty affirmatively alleges that plaintiff's Rule 14(a) claims fail to join all necessary and/or indispensable parties in the action.

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

34. Columbia Casualty affirmatively alleges that plaintiff's causes of action are barred, in whole or in part, by the equitable defenses of waiver, laches, and estoppel.

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

35. Columbia Casualty affirmatively alleges that plaintiff's causes of action are barred to the extent they seek coverage under its policy, or other relief, on behalf of an entity that is not an insured under the policy in question.

FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

37. Columbia Casualty affirmatively alleges that plaintiff's causes of action are barred to the extent coverage is sought from Columbia Casualty for matters other than for sums an insured has become legally obligated to pay as ultimate net loss by reason of liability for damages because of bodily injury, personal injury, or property damage caused by an occurrence.

SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

38. Columbia Casualty affirmatively alleges that plaintiff's causes of action are barred to the extent they seek to impose a duty to defend on Columbia Casualty.

EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

39. Columbia Casualty affirmatively alleges that plaintiff's causes of action are barred to the extent there has been no property damage within the meaning of its policy.

NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

40. Columbia Casualty affirmatively alleges that plaintiff's causes of action are barred to the extent they arise from events that do not constitute an occurrence within the meaning of its policy.

TENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

41. Columbia Casualty affirmatively alleges that plaintiff's causes of action are barred, in whole or in part, to the extent that the alleged occurrence took place, or is deemed to have taken place, outside the policy period of its policy.

ELEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

42. Columbia Casualty affirmatively alleges that plaintiff's causes of action are barred, in whole or in part, to the extent that the alleged property damage took place, or is deemed to have taken place, outside the policy period of its policy.

TWELFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

43. Columbia Casualty affirmatively alleges that plaintiff's causes of action are barred to the extent that recovery is sought for sums that do not constitute damages within the meaning of its policy.

THIRTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

FOURTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

45. Columbia Casualty affirmatively alleges that plaintiff's causes of action are barred to the extent insurance coverage is sought for sums not yet incurred.

FIFTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

46. Columbia Casualty affirmatively alleges that plaintiff's causes of action are barred to the extent insurance coverage is sought for property damage to property owned by any insured.

SIXTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

SEVENTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

EIGHTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

NINETEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

50. Columbia Casualty affirmatively alleges that plaintiff's causes of action are barred to the extent there has been a failure to comply with the cooperation condition of its policy.

TWENTIETH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

51. Columbia Casualty affirmatively alleges that plaintiff's causes of action are barred, in whole or in part, by virtue of the conditions of its policy pertaining to the application of other valid and collectible insurance.

TWENTY-FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

52. Columbia Casualty affirmatively alleges that plaintiff's causes of action are barred, in whole or in part, to the extent that coverage is sought for costs incurred prior to the date notice of the subject claim was provided to Columbia Casualty.

TWENTY-SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

53. Columbia Casualty affirmatively alleges that plaintiff's causes of action are barred to the extent insurance coverage is sought for property that any insured knew was already damaged at the inception of the policy.

TWENTY-THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

TWENTY-FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

TWENTY-FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

56. Columbia Casualty affirmatively alleges that to the extent that coverage may exist under its policy, the existence of such coverage being specifically denied, and in the event Columbia Casualty is found liable for some portion of the causes of action asserted in the complaint, all costs, expenses and amounts of any judgment should be apportioned among all other insurance available to plaintiff, as well as to any additional time periods which are shown to be uninsured and/or self-insured periods, as well as any time periods where insurance has not been shown to exist.

TWENTY-SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

57. Columbia Casualty affirmatively alleges that plaintiff's causes of action are barred pursuant to principles of res judicata and/or collateral estoppel according to the final judgment entered in St. Paul Mercury Insurance Co. v. Northern States Power Co., Hennepin County (Minnesota) District Court File Number 27-CV-03-017809, aff'd, Appellate Court File Number A07-1775 (Minn. Ct. App., August 25, 2009).

TWENTY-SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

TWENTY-EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

59. Columbia Casualty affirmatively alleges that plaintiff's causes of action are barred to the extent insurance coverage is sought for sums that were incurred due to a failure to take reasonable steps to mitigate, minimize, or avoid the loss or injury.

TWENTY-NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

THIRTIETH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

61. Columbia Casualty affirmatively alleges that plaintiff's causes of action are barred to the extent recovery is sought for awards in excess of the per occurrence and/or aggregate limits, contained in its policy.

THIRTY-FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

62. Columbia Casualty affirmatively alleges that plaintiff's causes of action are barred to the extent any applicable insured (including its brokers, agents, or other representative) concealed, misrepresented, or failed to disclose material facts existing as of the inception of the policy for the purpose of inducing Columbia Casualty to issue the policy.

THIRTY-SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

THIRTY-THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

64. Columbia Casualty affirmatively alleges that plaintiff's causes of action are barred, in whole or in part, by the applicable statute of limitations.

THIRTY-FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

THIRTY-FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

66. Columbia Casualty affirmatively alleges that plaintiff's causes of action are barred, in whole or in part, to the extent that the alleged property damage was caused by or arose out of the noncompliance with or violation of any statute, ordinance, regulation, or instruction of any governmental entity or public policy.

THIRTY-SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

67. Columbia Casualty affirmatively alleges that plaintiff's causes of action are barred, in whole or in part, to the extent that insurance coverage is sought for fines or penalties.

THIRTY-SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

68. Columbia Casualty affirmatively alleges that plaintiff's causes of action are barred to the extent the Columbia Casualty policy is exhausted by prior claims.

THIRTY-EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

69. Columbia Casualty affirmatively alleges that plaintiff's causes of action are barred, in whole or part, to the extent that there has been a breach of the warranty condition in the Columbia Casualty policy.

THIRTY-NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

FORTIETH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

71. Columbia Casualty affirmatively alleges that plaintiff's causes of action are barred by operation of the doctrines of release, payment, and accord and satisfaction.

FORTY-FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

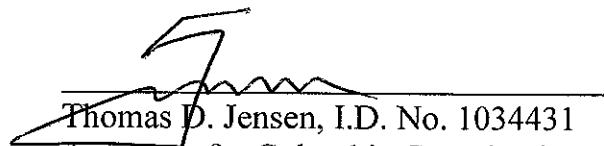

72. Columbia Casualty affirmatively alleges that the defenses set forth in its answer cannot be an exhaustive list of all affirmative defenses ultimately applicable, because discovery may disclose facts supporting additional defenses and Columbia Casualty specifically reserves and preserves such defenses without waiver.

WHEREFORE, Columbia Casualty Company prays that plaintiff's Rule 14(a) claims be dismissed with prejudice and on the merits, and that it receive a judgment against plaintiff for its costs and disbursements incurred herein.
